Dear Family & Friends,

Greetings in the lovely Name of Jesus our Lord! This month our focus is on the history of the Lily of Ovalle Church, in Ovalle, Chile, also known as Norte Chico (Little North), located in a beautiful fertile valley nestled between two mountain ranges, 6 hours north of Santiago.

March 11, 1990, our family moved to Ovalle, the same day Patricio Alywin became Chile's president, ending the 17 yrs of military dictatorship (1973 coup). From that day to now, life has changed drastically. Illiteracy is almost unknown & education is the norm. It is considered the most stable country in Latin America & the spread of Gospel has rapidly increased. Our humble beginning was in a rented room at a downtown daycare, with our vision to evangelize the lost to Jesus Christ, to train believers to be effective ministers of His Word & to be spiritual fathers.
